

Use of Private Vehicles for District Business

Employees who are expected to use a personal vehicle when traveling for business purposes will be reimbursed in and amount that meets requirements as set forth in mileage reimbursement rates established by the Board and/or collective bargaining agreement as applicable.

Employees using private vehicles for district business are subject to SSD policies as long as the vehicle is being used for SSD business.

Employees using private vehicles for district business must carry vehicle insurance in accordance with Oregon Revised Statutes. The vehicle's insurance will be the primary policy used in the event of an insurance claim.
