“Home of the Outlaws”

Sisters High School Head Volleyball Coach

Posting Date: April 7, 2026

Position Closes: Open Until Filled

Position Available: August 18, 2026

Position Description:

Sisters High School, a proud 3A member of the OSAA Mountain Valley Conference, invites applications for the position of Head Volleyball Coach. The candidate must possess the skills of a dynamic teacher who loves the game of volleyball and is passionate about working with student athletes. The applicant will demonstrate the ability to truly lead a volleyball program and its surrounding culture. Leadership of all assistants, program operations, media relations, and coordination with programs K through 12 are all vital portions of this position. Knowledge and commitment to the academic success of all Sister's athletes, and commitment to school, conference, and OSAA regulations are required.

Sisters is located in beautiful and sunny Central Oregon with surrounding mountains, lakes, streams, and outdoor activities which include skiing, fishing, climbing, and boating. Central Oregon is a hub for athletics-based education and communities committed to healthy lifestyles.
